Weekly Update

Jan 3, 2023

I hope you all had a relaxing and enjoyable break. I spent a lot of time with family and friends. Some of my highlights included going to see Zoolights, visiting Otherworld, and lots of Switch playing with my daughter. That being said, I am excited for the second half of the school year. We have a lot going on as soon as we get back.

Weekly Practice Schedule

Jazz Band/Combo

There will be NO Jazz Band/Combo this week. We will begin back with M/W rehearsal starting Jan. 9. We will all meet Monday and Wednesday next week to determine if 2 bands are needed.

Pep Band

Our next Pep Band game isn't until Jan. 6. Those individuals who signed up for this game NEED to be there. If something has come up last minute, YOU are responsible for finding a replacement. Your absence is unacceptable.

Solo & Ensemble

Students should be able to play through the entirety of the pieces by this point. We will be assigning Scale/Rudiment requirements to students taking a solo on Wednesday. Ensembles/Soloists will be given opportunities this week to work with Mr. Notestine or myself during class. We will be checking on your progress. The date for S&E is January 28 at Granville. Times are still TBD. Once I receive them, I will let you know. Please also make plans for transportation to and from. No student is permitted to drive themselves.
