Weekly Update

May 22, 2023

It's hard to believe that we've reached the last week of the school year. I want to thank all the students/parents who have made this year a success. Your commitment to this program is amazing! To our seniors, congratulations on graduating this past Friday evening. I wish you the best of luck in the future and I know you'll do great things.

Weekly Practice Schedule

Symphonic Band

- 4th July Parade Prep

Concert Band

- 4th July Parade Prep

Uniforms/Equipment

If you have either your Marching/Concert Uniform still at home, please turn those in this week. We will be compiling a list of those still needing to do that.

We will also be collecting all school owned instruments starting today. If a student would like to take home an instrument over the summer, they will need to re-check out the instrument once it's been inventoried. This is to hopefully keep better track of instruments throughout the year.

Marching Band Online Store

Our online store is now live! Please make sure to purchase the following items by June 16.

- Orange Polo: Marching Band Members
- Grey Polo: Color Guard Members
- Black Mesh Shorts: Everyone
- Orange Compression Shirt: Marching Band Members
- Black Marching Shoes can be purchased from Rettig Music

There are other items for sale on the site that you may purchase if you'd like. Please make sure that all items are purchased by June 16. This is to ensure that shirts/shorts can be ready for the 4th of July Parade.

Marching Band Schedule/Parent Meeting & Show Reveal

Attached our links to information shared at the meeting. If you have any questions, please let me know!

Disney Registration/Deposit

The first payment(deposit) was due this Friday May 19. Please make sure to keep up to date with payments.

We will be tallying all the donations from the Virtual Week of Giving. Once we have those numbers, we will let you know what can be added toward your account.

We currently have a small dilemma in that we have exceeded our proposed number of travelers. We are working with the company to ensure that ALL students will get priority and have the opportunity to participate on the trip.

2023/2024 Communication Form

In hopes to get information to those that need it, we are compiling emails for next school year. If you wish to still receive Weekly Updates along with other important information for next school year, please fill out the following form.
